

WNHU Promote Application

WNHU Promote is a feature on WNHU.net that allows for the advertising and promotion of local and developing bands and artists! From rock to blues, funk to metal, all genres and all types of acts – solo and group – are accepted as a part of WNHU Promote! If you are a local or developing band or artist and are interested in becoming a featured act, please fill out this form and mail it back to us for consideration.

Please Note

All that needs to be sent back to us at this time is this form, completed. You need not send us media, biographical information, or photos at this time. We will be in touch with you shortly, at which point we will ask for that information.
